

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Dec. 24, 2020

LAFCU hires Rebecca Allan as commercial loan officer

LANSING, Mich. — LAFCU has named Rebecca Allan commercial loan officer.

Allan, a 20-year veteran of the banking and finance industry, will work to provide lending opportunities to businesses and investors throughout Michigan.

“Rebecca is a strong finance professional who puts members first,” said Jason Smith, LAFCU chief lending officer. “She’s a great fit as she wants the best for Michigan businesses as does LAFCU.”

Allan has worked in management for several Lansing-area financial institutions and has specialized in business banking and commercial lending since 2017. She was also customer service center supervisor for Jackson in Lansing where she worked for nearly nine years.

“I love helping people achieve their dreams as well as save money with credit union rates and services,” Allan said. “It’s what inspires me.

“LAFCU is filled with amazing people who all want the same thing: To provide world-class member services and to grow with our members.”

About LAFCU

Chartered in 1936, LAFCU is a not-for-profit financial cooperative open for membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Michigan and to businesses and other entities located in Michigan. The credit union serves more than 68,000 members and holds over $835 million in assets. It was named a Best Credit Union to Work For in 2020. LAFCU offers a comprehensive range of financial products and services as well as an expanding complement of financial technology solutions. Members enjoy benefits such as low fees, low interest rates on loans, high yields on savings, discounts, knowledgeable employees and nationwide access to fee-free ATMs. A recipient of the national Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Community Service Award for credit unions, LAFCU enriches the communities it serves by supporting many organizations and causes. To learn more about LAFCU, call 800.748.0228 or visit www.lafcu.com.

Rebecca Allan

#